VOL. VI. RENO. WASHOE COUNTY, NEVADA, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 14, 1878. NO. 66.

Russia's Deplorable Condition.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13th.—A prominent member of the board of trade has received a letter from a relative residing at Odessa, Russia, the principal grain port of that country. He complains of the complete prostration of business in that city and country, and the deplorable condition of the Russian finances generally. Labor is unemployed. The Russian paper rouble, which before the war was worth 80@82 cents has sunk in value to 50 cents in silver. Prime Odessa wheat can be purchased at 50@56 cents per bushel. One cause of these extremely low figures is that freights on grain to Europe had risen from 17 shillings to 36 shillings per ton. The writer concludes by saying that he considers Russia, so far as the capacity for carrying on an aggressive war is concerned, is crippled for years. She cannot obtain means for waging such a contest. The war with Turkey, he says was to a considerable extent carried on by the aid of paper money, which has since enormously depreciated. He says there is plenty of wheat in southern Russia. The difficulty is to procure ships to transport it to England at living rates to producers.

Rarus Makes the Fastest Mile.

STOCKTON, Dec. 13.—The attendance at the Agricultural society's track yesterday to witness the trial of speed of Rarus and Sweetser was very fair, 400 persons being present. The track was in splendid condition, and pronounced by Splann to be the fastest in this State, and the best he has been on this season. A strong north wind prevailed all the afternoon. The purse was for $500, and in case either horse should beat Goldsmith Maid's time in this State (2:14½), $500 was to be added. Rarus made the first heat in 2:16½; second heat, with running horse 2:14¼—the fastest time ever made in the State. After this heat Shippee, the President, announced that Rarus, having beaten the fastest time ever made in the state, would not trot a third heat. Sweetser made the first heat in 2:16½; second heat, with running horse, 2:16½; third heat, 2:17½.

Threatening to Kill Queen Victoria.

LONDON, December, 13th.—A man namod Edward Byrne Madden was arraigned in the Bow-street police court yesterday, charged with threatening the life of Queen Victoria. It appears that Madden, who sent the letters to the Home office, threatening the life of Queen Victoria, is a somewhat eccentric and probably a half-witted man, who is well known among the habitues of Leicester square and Soho, where he has been seen in the haunts of foreign refugees. His letters, which are written in bad French, are mainly made up of rather incoherent invectives and demands for immediate and radical change in government. But little importance is attached to the letters or their writer.

Red Bluff's Fiendish Murder.

Dec. 13.—W. R. Donaldson, John Cluckey and John F Martin have been arrested for the murder of A. D. Buck of this county, who, in April last, was found dead on his ranch with a bullet hole through his body. The district attorney has succeeded in getting a full confession out of them all. Donaldson did the shooting. The others were accessories. The confession discloses a plot which has never been equaled in this county, and is scarcely equaled even by the fiendish work of Troy Dye and his accomplices. They accused the deceased of poisoning some horses belonging to them, and agreed that the first of the three who saw him was to shoot the "old bagger," as they termed him.

The Blaine Resolution—A Full Discussion Probable.

CHICAGO, December 13th.—A Journal Washington special says: Democratic senators are satisfied with the result of the debate in the senate on Wednesday over Blaine's resolution, and propose to discuss it very fully when it is called up for action next week, and will endeavor to put the Republicans on the defensive. Senator Butler of South Carolina proposes to have something to say about the recent election in his State, and to defend the Democratic party from the charge of violation of law, and preventing the negroes from voting. Republican leaders will welcome a free debate, and believe a general discussion will injure the opponents.

Russian Movements in Afghanistan.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—Great excitement prevailed at the clubs and other places of resort last night, respecting the news which, it is reported, has been received concerning the movements of Russia and Afghanistan. The statement of Sir Stafford Northcote in the house of commons, that the government had found itself deceived by the report that the Russian envoy had left Cabul, and that it had ascertained that although the envoy had returned, the Russian legation which he had established in Cabul still remained there, has produced a great impression, and his emphatic declaration that England would under no circumstances tolerate Russian interference in Afghanistan affairs is received as almost a declaration of war against Russia.

Bayard Taylor Ill of Dropsy.

NEW YORK, Dec 13.—A friend of Bayard Taylor writes from Dresden that Taylor is hopelessly sick with the dropsy, and states that a fortnight ago fifteen quarts of water were taken from him and the operation subsequently repeated.

Very Commendable.

[Leslie's Sunday Magazine.]

The following order has been issued to the clergy and laity of his diocese, by the Roman Catholic Bishop of Cleveland, Ohio. It will do well for Protestant Christians to read it and govern themselves accordingly.

To prevent and guard against abuses that are rapidly growing up in this diocese, in connection with church and society picnics, excursions, festivals, etc., the following regulations are prescribed:

1. Societies are organized for beneficial purposes, and whose benefits are confined to their members, or societies that are organized for private ends and interests, cannot be permitted to appeal to the public by picnics, excursions, festivals, lectures, suppers, etc., to raise funds for their own private use and benefit. Public appeals must be for the public charities, and societies cannot be permitted to appeal to the public, except when the money so raised is to be used for and in the interest of some public charity.

2. All kinds of round dancing, night dancing, dancing in halls or ballrooms, for the raising money for church purposes or public charities, are strictly and unqualifiedly forbidden.

3. The sale of wine, beer, or any kind of intoxicating liquors at church picnics, excursions, festivals, suppers, etc., is strictly forbidden and will not be permitted under any pretense whatsoever.

4. Moonlight excursions, picnics, continued till after nightfall, meetings of the people where morals or good behavior are endangered, are also forbidden.

5. Before any picnics or excursions, whether for church or society purposes can be held, the permission of the Ordinary must be first obtained.

6. Pastors will read these regulations at mass on the Sunday after their receipt, and see that they are strictly obeyed.

The scarcity of diamonds, gold and silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their value. Thus it is with a valuable medicine: Dr. Aug. Kaiser's celebrated German Pulmonic Elixir, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom, or put out a prairie fire with a tear. For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your druggists, OSBURN & SHOEMAKER, for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser and has his name blown on every 75 cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents. For sale

NEW DEPARTURE.—On and after December 1st, 1878, the store of Manning & Duck will be conducted on a cash basis. Every customer will be compelled to pay for his own goods. No extra profits for bad debts. We propose to sell goods cheaper than they have ever been sold in this market. We are compelled to this important step by several weighty reasons: First, we wish to encourage prompt payment. Second, the prompt payer should not be compelled to pay an extra profit for the slow customer or the man that never pays. Third and most important reason, we are not able to carry so large an amount of capital on our books and keep up our stock of goods. Good gilt edge customers will be allowed credit of thirty days. If by agreement longer time is given, interest of 1½ per cent a month will be charged. A. H. MANNING.

N. B. The old accounts of Manning & Duck must be settled by cash or note by the 1st of January or they will be placed in the hands of a collector for collection.

A. H. MANNING.

M. on the following days. Fare, $20 each way. Freight on baggage over 50 pounds, 3 cents per pound. Office at Hammond & Wilson's stable, opposite Railroad depot. JOHN WILSON, Agent. se3-tf

NOTICE.—Having established a purchasing agency, Mr. L. Bien will give his personal attention to orders of any kind, such as boots and shoes, furniture, crockery, carpets, millinery goods, groceries, etc. Being in constant business relations and having a thorough acquaintance with all the leading houses, ladies, in ordering through Mr. Bien, will receive the full benefit of his experience and find it more advantageous than doing their own shopping. SIMMOND'S

NABOB WHISKEY.

Consumers are referred to the following extract from the report of an eminent Public Analyst:

This is a pure barley and wheat spirit, remarkable in fragrant others, which impart a delicate aroma, at the same time greatly increasing its value as a diffusive stimulant. The solid residue contains a large amount of tannic, derived from storing in oak casks, which imparts to fine old whisky one of its valuable individual qualities. The amount of the residue proves the whisky to be free from the excessive coloring and sweetening so generally used in adulterating. In fact, in two words, it is the PURE OLD WHISKY, and will not only supply a public want, now that whiskies are so generally adulterated, but will be of the greatest value to the physician in those numerous cases where pure whiskies are the most useful of all medicine.

HOW TO GET RID OF THE CHINESE

The GAZETTE's proposal that the states of the Pacific coast unite in opening polls upon an agreed day upon which every voter may cast his ballot for or against the Chinese is practicable. The expression of public expression thus obtained could not possibly be questioned by the people of the east or the President and the senate— the treaty-making and treaty-abrogating power. The vast vote against the presence of the Mongolians which such a ballot would elicit would be a blow so powerful that we are sanguine enough to believe that it would settle the question. The Journal this morning joins hands with us in this plan. The Journal says:

"Is there no way to attract the attention of congress to the great danger threatening the coast beause of the Chinese immigration? The great minds of congress are engrossed with the Southern question, finances and a number of other important sudjects, but beyond a few speeches and bills from Western legislators nothing is heard on the subject to the interests of Western laboring men. If the subject is thouroughly agitated now by a united coast we think it can be impressed npon congress, and we heartily second the suggestion of a cotemporary that an election be held to get the voice of the people. Let it be done at once."

The GAZETTE suggested Washington's birthday as an appropriate day for obtaining this vote. The expenses should be paid by private subscription. The GAZETTE repeats its offer of $50 toward defraying the cost in Washoe county.

THE UNLUCKY INDIAN.

We are not of those who seem to think that by turning the care of the Indians over to the war department all the present troubles with our copper-colored wards would be at an end. So long as the Indians have no rights which white men will respect there will be trouble. We rob and illuse them in every direction and they, being human, arrive now and then at despair and burn and slay in their just fury. Keeping up the fiction that the Indian tribes are separate nations is at the bottom of a good deal of the mischief. Let them be treated as individuals, with the rights and responsibilities of other individuals of a different color, and educate the young ones and make intelligent American citizens of them. The Indians are weak. The whites are strong. In the course of amiable human nature, therefore, we are bound to steal everything they have and abuse them into the bargain. The war department will be more likely to lend a hand in this cheerful business than the contrary.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

No person of normal sensibility doubts that to kill criminals by hanging is a barbarous method—a remnant of the middle ages now abandoned by the most civilized people.—Carson Appeal.

England, America and the British colonies are inhabited by pretty well civilized people, and yet they are partial to hanging. There is much nonsense written about the barbarity of this way of killing criminals. When done properly it is quite as painless as the quillotine and infinitely cleaner. The gallows is a pretty good institution and has a terrifying record. We wish that that other "relic of barbarism"—the lash, could be resurrected and put actively at work also.

Red used on a railway signifies danger and says "Stop." It is the same thing displayed on a man's nose.—Invented in 1829.

The red nose not only says "Stop" but moves the scent reservoir beneath it to add: "Lend us a quarter, won't you, young feller?"

Eureka, Nevada is to have a Young Men's Christian Association. It will be the only organization of the kind in the state. By the way, why shouldn't such a society do well in Gold Hill? The News office could supply several first-class members.—Gold Hill News.

It could—in the raw.

The Truckee Republican man is justly indignant at the young hoodlums of that town. They have evidently been annoying him, for he says that "they delight to vex any stray inebriate" and "their boyish voices sound discordant enough at the midnight hour, mingling with the coarse laughter and mirth of dissipation."

The Eureka Sentinel says—But stop. We're not so sure about that. We'll wait and see where the Sentinel nipped the article from before we knock its assertions into a cocked hat.

Our contemporaries in the eastern part of the state are rallying one another about stealing editorials from eastern papers. The joke is a very old one.

"Should official thieves be punished?" asks the Sacramento Bee. Tut, tut! Is the man mad? Whoever heard of such a thing?

Gortchakoff has formally resumed direction of the Russian foreign office.

Newspaper Men Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 12.—George K. Fitch and Loring Pickering, proprietors of the Bulletin, were arrested this afternoon at the instance of Wm. L. Reed of Placerville, on a charge of libel in having, as is alleged, published a letter from a correspondent during the Page-De Young case at Placerville, hinting that Reed, who was a juror on the case, based his action as one of the minority of t e two jurors who voted in favor of De Young, on something besides conscientious scruples. The jury in that case stood ten for conviction of the De Youngs of libeling Page to two against. Reed was one of the two. A. E. T. Towley, correspondent of the Bulletin at Placerville, will also be arrested, as a warrant is out against him. Fitch and Pickering gave bail to answer when wanted.

SAN FRANCISCO Dec. 13.—In the police court this morning the libel case of Reed against the proprietors of the Call and Bulletin came up. The defendants stated that they required sufficient delay to enable them to bring witnesses from Placerville and Sacramento, and the case was continued till December 21st.

Mining Stocks in New York.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—The W. says: A petition is in circulat among members of the Stock Exchan which has already received upwards 400 signatures, calling the attentio of the Governing Committee to the inconvenience stock brokers have to suffer in not being able to deal in stocks without becoming members of another instiution. The petition further prays, now that the mining interests of the country demands it, that the Gold Room be set apart after January 1st for trading in mining stocks.

A Terrible Outrage.

MURFREESBORO, Tenn., Dec. 12.—Dennis Edwards (colored), living ten miles from here, was shot and killed last Saturday by William Smithey and John B. Jerrolds (white) because he refused to allow one of them to cut off the tail of the horse he had been riding. The murder occurred at Edwards' cabin. His wife and child were also hit by bullets and soon after died. A colored visitor was fatally wounded. Edwards was much liked by both races. Smithey and Jerrolds have been arrested and the jail is now being guarded to prevent lynch law being administered.

"A THING of beauty is a joy forever." This poetical adage was never more truthfully illustrated than at I. Fredricks's jewelry store. His new stock of Christmas presents are marvels of beauty, quality and cheapness. dec13im

THE custom of giving presents at Christmas and New Year, as well as the egg presentations at Easter, is of very ancient origin, but better opertunities were never offered than this present season at I. Fredrick's jewelry store. Cheaper than ever. dec13im

A Wiser Bootblack.

The wise bootblack who polishes at Nick Hammersmith's barber shop, turned what he supposed to be an empty kerosene oil can up side down on the hot stove to-day. There was a fizz and a bang and a scared establishment, but nobody was hurt. It would have been otherwise had there been more oil in the can. That bootblack now knows a little more about the explosive power of kerosene.

A PLEASANT PARTY.

Celebration of the Cotton Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones.

The young married people of Reno are adding a new feature to the social enjoyments of the town by the celebration of the first anniversary of the day upon which they were united. This observance is called a "cotton wedding," but the friends who desire to make presents are not forced to confine themselves to that material. Last evening

MR. AND MRS. C. W. JONES

had reached the end of the first year of their double pilgrimage. Invitations printed on cotton had been previously issued to relatives and friends and at an early hour the guests began to assemble at the Jones residence, the interior of which was prettily decorated with flowers, sent by friends from California. Mrs. Jones was appropriately appareled in a simple dress of colored cotton, as was also the bridesmaid of the evening, Mrs. Carrie Sessions, who added a pair of cotton earrings. The grace and beauty of the evening found itself forced to crystalize and shine with almost blinding refulgence in the person of the happy groom himself. Mr. Jones was arrayed in a full suit of blue cotton overalls, in which he looked so bewitching that several young ladies were noticed during the evening sighing heavily and looking enviously from the ravishing groom to the bride. The groomsman, J. O. Sessions, almost divided the honors in a complete dress of butteraut cotton overalls. Music and conversation for a time occupied the company. Presently all present joined in singing "Home Sweet Home," and Mr. and Mrs. Jones took their places beneath the chandelier, with Mr. and Mrs. Sessions behind them. Rev. Mr. McKelvey addressed a few words to the couple, congratulating them upon having thus far enjoyed health and happiness, and expressing the hope that the coming years, and many of them, would find them equally blessed. The reverend gentleman then besought the favor of heaven upon the pair and everyone with him repeated the Lord's prayer. This impressive little ceremony done, the guests were invited to partake of refreshments, which were provided with great abundance and much taste. The many who had brought presents placed them in an ante-room, where they were enthusiastically admired by the ladies and respectfully viewed by the gentlemen. A number of handsome gifts arrived from friends in Grass Valley, Sacramento and other parts of California, as well as from Virginia, Carson and other Nevada towns. A pair of cotton drawers, large enough for the Cardiff giant, puffed Mr. Jones up to a point of insufferable vanity. The large company was pleasantly entertained up to about midnight when all departed, cordially wishing Mr. and Mrs. Jones many happy returns of the anniversary of their wedding day. Among the

LADIES PRESENT

were the following: Mesdames E. C. and J. O. Sessions, Mrs. McKelvey, Mrs. Kimball, Mrs. Tredway, Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. Wagar, Mrs. Luke, Mrs. Mosher, Mrs. Griswold, Mrs. Stiner, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. Field, Mrs. Valencourt, Mrs. McEwen, Miss Mary Stiner, Miss Louise Mosher, Miss Polly Thomas, Miss Williams, Miss Harney, Miss Brown, Miss Flora Loomis, Miss Effie Loomis, Miss Ada Tilton, Miss Celia Sessions, Miss Carrie Sessions, Miss Lida Hutchinson, Miss Hattie Like, Miss Rose Wilcox, Miss Lou Wilbur and Miss Edith Valencourt.

GENTLEMEN PRESENT.

Messrs. Sanders, Gillispie, Loomis, Maddrill, Dwelly, Martin, McKea, Laylock, Logan, McKelvey, Kimball, J. O. Sessions, E. C. Sessions, Tredway, Wagar, Luke, McEwen and others.

State Lodge of Good Templars.

State Deputy Grand Worthy Chief of the Order of Good Templars, H. B. Maxson, is engaged in efforts to bring about the organization of a Grand Lodge in this state. The necessary supplies for the purpose, in the way of ritual etc, have been received from the Right Worthy Grand Lodge of the World. The Good Templars are flourishing in Nevada, new lodges being constantly organized. The work done by the Order must meet with the approbation of everyone and it is to be hoped that Mr. Maxson will meet with success in his endeavors to establish the State Lodge.

Tar-and-Feather Jones.

A gentleman just returned from San Francisco, while riding on a horse-car on Montgomery street, saw upon the sidewalk, that famous Renoite, Tar-and-feather Jones. Our ostrich's hair and beard, which he found it necessary to cut off in order to get rid of the foreign matter, have grown partly out again. He was dressed shabbily and seemed out of luck. The gentleman upon inquiry at headquarters learned that the police keep their eye upon Jones, as his character, well known to them by his past doings, lead them to the natural suspicion that he will have his fingers into some fresh deviltry before long.

Holiday Job Work.

Holiday job work of all kinds done at the GAZETTE office at reasonable prices. A large new stock of material of every kind has been received within the past few weeks. The job department is superintended by an artist.

ANOTHER SPELLING MATCH.

A Year's Subscription to the "Gazette" to the Victor.

The spelling bee at the Methodist church the other evening was so successful financially and productive of so much fun that, in response to a very general wish, there will be another match on Wednesday evening next at the same place. The attendance is sure to be much larger than on the previous occasion, for everyone who was present then has been an active advertisement for the next. Generals Laycock and Tredway, together with their respective armies, have fully recovered from their wounds and are ferociously eager for the fray. Active recruiting will swell the ranks of both parties. These orthographical contests will be a source of great amusement and instruction during the winter if properly managed. The first prize on Wednesday evening will be a year's subscription to the daily GAZETTE (equivalent to $10) offered by the proprietors of this journal. Other prizes will also doubtless be offered and a strong incentive thus created for a brisk battle. It is agreed by all actively interested at present that the mode of giving out the words will be changed a little. A dictionary will be kept handy and any speller desiring to be assisted in his struggle with a twister by learning the meaning of his or her foe will be gratified. As an additional attraction it is authoritatively stated that Nels Hammond and Tom Hymers will glare at each other from opposite aisles and spell each other down or perish in the attempt. Music and luncheon will be pleasant features of the evening. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged at the door.

TRUCKEE ITEMS.

[To-day's Republican.]

The shingle and lath mill of the Truckee Lumber Co. has shut down for the winter.

Wilson Forest will run a shingle mill at or near McFarland's mill. He has purchased Mr. Martin's engine and Mr. Wiggin's shingle machine. Mr. F. Burkhalter takes the shingles as fast as manufactured, and has orders for all that can be mada.

J. E. Marshal, proposes to construct a shingle mill in the spring at the mouth of Pole creek, on the Truckee river. He will build a flume for a considerable distance up the stream, for the purpose of floating shingle blocks to the mill. The flume will tap a fine body of timber. He intends to make six million shingles next year. He already has a contract for four million.s

The trout are commencing their annual run up the Truckee river. During other years they have been met at every stage of their journey with the grab-hooks, nets, wheels, traps, and numberless other contrivances. Will it be so this year? The dams of the mill men aleng the Truckee have usually been impassable for trout, and held the fish until they could be slaughtered. Will proper fish ladders be provided this year? The Republican gives fair warning to all concerned, that if the present Deputy Fish Commissioner retains his appointment, offenders will be strictly and strenuously prosecuted. This warning extends not only to the millmen and fishermen of the Truckee river but to the law breakers of Pyramid Lake and Tahoe. Last season some offenders, were allowed to go unpunished, owing to the extreme lateness of the season at which the appointment was received. This year no man shall escape if proof can be obtained to secure his conviction. The fish as a matter of right, should be allowed to go to their spawning grounds. As a matter of fact they shall be allowed to ascend this year, or these who prevent them shall receive prompt and vigorous prosecution.

Frank Thayer Killed.

At 4 o'clock on Thursday afternoon an accident occurred in the Ward mine by which Superintendent F. M. Thayer, formerly of the Julia, lost his life. While unloading a large hewn stone for the works, the guy of a derrick gave way, the derrick fell, and the shed end of the boom struck Thayer on the top of the head, crushing his skull. He lingered until 8 o'clock yesterday morning, when death came to his relief. The deceased leaves a wife and family and numerous friends to mourn his death. He was a member of Virginia lodge No. 3, F. & A. M., by the members of which his remains were taken in charge.

A Cold Night.

It was bitter cold last night and to-day the river is full of floating ice. In shallow places it is frozen hard and the water, being thus retarded in its flow, has raised the river about six inches. Above the dam the ice all the way across is over two inches thick and to-day the boys have been skating there.

Masonic Installation.

The members of Reno Chapter No 7 R. A. M. and of Reno Lodge No 13. F. & A. M. are informed that the installation of the newly elected officers will take place on St. John's day, Dec. 27th and not at the earlier time at first announced.

The Hutchinsons.

Remember that the Hutchinson Family give a concert at the Academy of Music on Monday evening. The Hutchinsons are a standard troupe and are preceded by a fine reputation and first-class press notices.

REMEMBER IT EVERYBODY.—In the month of December everybody should remember the great bargains of rich and elegant holiday presents at S. N. Davidson's d14tf Thieving Chinaman.

Ah Sin, not having the fear of the law before his eyes, last night stole a plank from the Reno Lumber Co's yard and George Avery lassoed him. To-day he was found guilty of petty larceny and this evening Judge Bowker will accommodate him with his sentence.

About a month ago a stove and blacksmith's bellows and hammer, belonging to the Highland Ditch Co were stolen. To-day a heathen was brought before Judge Bowker, pleaded guilty to stealing the stove, paid for it, likewise costs, and by consent of complaining witness, wa allowed to go.

HARD THINGS TO DO.—There are three things that no man can keep—a point on a pencil, a pointed joke and an appointment with a dentist. There are three things no woman can do—cross before a horse, hurry for a horse car and pass S. N. Davidson's jewelry window without calling and examing some of his fine holiday presents on exhibition, which he offers for sale cheaper than ever. d14tf

Talk is Cheap.

And so are fine clothing, boots, shoes, hats and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishing goods, if you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in prices in anything in my line. Besides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves. I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock before going into those humbugging, Cheap John shops, in which they drum into the ear of the customer that they sell at cost and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must knew that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of fancy underwear, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of my specialties. Remember the place. The White House, No. 19. Commercial Row.

Orders from the country promptly attended to.

Brookins has just received an immense stock of Holiday Goods, the finest and largest assortment that was ever brought to Reno. China, tin, and Britania sets of dishes, vases, Toilet, wine and smoking sets, Mustache Cups, Mugs and Flower pots. The finest and lowest priced Albums that have ever been heard of. Games of Authors, Across the Continent, etc, wall pockets and brackets. This stock will be sold very cheap. Bird Cages and Hooks, Toy Pianos, Jumping Jacks, Magic Lanterns, Jack in Box, Rocking Horses, Wagons, Carts, Wheelbarrows, toy perambulators, bed-room sets, tables, sideboards and bureaus, tumbling harlequins, watches, building and A B C blocks, silver bell and rubber rattles. A magnificent and very large stock of dolls, wax, worsted, and China, Papiermache, French kid with flexible joints, walking and talking dolls. Jeff invites special attention to these dolls, as he is determined to sell them so cheap that our people will buy. On account of Brookins' store being too small to exhibit his wonderful stock, he has leased the Reno Furniture Store, where he invites everybody to call and see his goods, and if they can go through his rooms without buying something to make the hearts of the little ones glad, they can beat me. dec1tf

COMPETITION is said to be the life of trade. This may be so, but it opens a field to unscrupulous merchants to palm off spurious for the genuie article. This is not so at I. Fredrick's jewelry store, for, although his prices are lower than ever before, he will warrant everything sent out of his store as represented. dec13im

WHO IS HE?

Who is this man with weapon keen,
And eyes of fiercest glare,
Who ere he does his work on us
Secures us in his chair?

Upon the victim lying there
Small ruth indeed has he.
Beware this man, this dreadful man,
He's marked both you and me!

Upon the down of rosy youth,
Upon the beard of age,
Upon the jaws of all of us
This man grim war doth wage.

He'll shave your chin or cut your hair,
Or eke your head shampoo,
Or dye that frosty poll of yours,
Here is his name for you:

Cattle Thieves Burned at the East.

OMAHA, Dec 12.—Two suspected cattle theives named Mitchell and Ketchum had a lively fight a few days ago with four herders who were trying to arrest them on South Loop Fork, in Custer county, a newly organized county in Western Nebraska, and during the fight Stevens, one of the herders, was shot and instantly killed. Mitchell and Ketchum escaped but were soon afterwards arrested. The sheriff and a guard of several men, on Tuesday night last, were taking Mitchell and Ketchum to a place of safe keeping, it being feared that the exasperated cattle herders would lynch them, and sure enough while they were en route a body of twenty or thirty masked men, mounted and armed, corralled the whole party and under cover of cocked rifles took the prisoners from the sheriff and guards and hurriedly disappeared with them. Yesterday the bodies of Mitchell and Ketchum were found burned almost beyond recognition at the foot of a tree, to which they had evidently been tied while a fire was built around them and burned to death.

A Convict's Break for Liberty.

A daring attempt at escape was made by Thomas Newton, a San Quentin prisoner, yesterday, who has nine years between him and freedom. He had been doing some work on a steam launch lying off the brick-yard, and after finishing the job he jumped into the little skiff in which he had come off and paddled vigorously toward the other side of the bay. He was immediately discovered, and rifles and cannon detonated in rapid succession, the bullets dotting the water all around him. He got safely out of range, however, and reached the other side. Another boat manned by three guards was close on his heels and the pursuit ended just after the shore was reached, the guards bringing him to a stand with their rifles and taking him back.

Remarkable Gluttony.

A remarkable case of gluttony is reported by a Vergennes, Vermont, correspondent of the Burlington Free Press. A wager was laid between William Laduke and Messrs Fortin & Labombard as follows: Within ten hours Laduke was to consume two pounds of pork steak; four large potatoes; one-half of a pie; two slices of bread, each one and a quarter inches in thickness; and a quarter of a pound of butter; to drink two cups of tea, and to eat one-half a bushel of apples. Laduke completed his task within the specified time, and had half an hour to spare. When he began he weighed 145 pounds, and when he completed he weighed 158 pounds, showing a gain of eight pounds. He says he felt no inconvenience from thus gorging himself.

FELLOW'S
COMPOUND SYRUP OF HYPOPHOSPHITES.

THIS DISCOVERY

Is the result of a series of Scientific Experiments based upon the theory that "for the successful cure of Wasting Diseases, the nervous system must be made vigorous and healthy."

One of the first symptoms of disease affecting either the Liver, Lungs, Heart, Stomach, or Genital Organs, is a loss of nervous power. This is followed by muscular relaxation, weakness, and emaciation of all the organs which depend upon them for health or involuntary muscular action, the weaker suffering first.

The Inventor, acting upon this idea, that the muscles and nerves depend upon each other for efficient strength and action, and that they must be treated directly in order to speedily and permanently cure diseases of the organs which they control, became convinced, after months of experiment, that no other preparation produced such potent and direct effects upon the nervous system as his

and except in cases of actual organic loss, that it would restore patients suffering from those maladies.

Amongst the diseases overcome by the use of this remedy are the following:—

Chronic Constipation,
Chronic Dyspepsia,
Asthma,
Chronic Bronchitis,
Consumption,
Chronic Diarrhœa,
Chronic Laryngitis,
Melancholy,
Nervous Debility.

Debility, resulting from Typhoid and other low fevers, Diphtheritic Prostration, Hysteria, Hypochondria, Nervous Excitability, Marasmus or Wasting of the Muscles, Aphonia or Loss of Voice, Sluggishness of the Liver, Interrupted and Feeble Action of the Heart, Surrounding Evils caused by mucous obstruction of the lungs and Air Passages leading thereto, and Debility from various causes.

Indigestiveness and habitual Costiveness almost always arise from weakness of the muscles and nerves of the stomach and bowels. In such cases, Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites has proved itself of the greatest service by inducing healthy peristaltic action of the intestines. The evacuations soon become copious and healthy, without producing the effect of purgative medicine.

Weakness of the Joints and Muscles, Impurity of the Blood, and Inward Wastings may be cured by attention to the regular described doses, and by due regard to the habits of life.

FELLOWS'
Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites

The power of arresting diseases displayed by this preparation is honorably acknowledged by the medical faculty in every section where it has been introduced, and the large sale is the best guarantee of the estimation in which it is held by the public.

This syrup will cure PULMONARY CONSUMPTION in the first and second stages, will give great relief and prolong life in the third stage, will cure ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, HOARSENESS and COUGHS. It will cure all diseases originating from want of MUSCULAR ACTION and NERVOUS FORCE.
